Please attach separate sheets for the following.

I. PREVIOUS SERVICE OR HUMANITARIAN WORK

Please address in no longer than a page the service or humanitarian work that you have performed in the last twelve months. Your description should include; (1) information about the people or programs you assisted or the social problems you addressed, (2) the impact of these activities on others, and (3) how you were influenced by the work and the people with whom you worked.

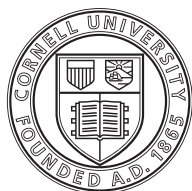

II. PROPOSAL DESCRIPTION

Describe in no longer than three pages how you would use, for humanitarian purposes, an award of $1,500 and what effect your initiative would have within a community. Your proposal should include; (1) a statement of goals including scope of project ie. agencies and populations served, length of time providing service, etc., (2) the steps you will take to achieve these goals, (3) the time you will give to the effort, (4) how and when you will assess the results, and (5) a budget outline for the use of the funds (if you have an existing operational budget, how would this project budget fit in), (6) please address whether you will be starting a new human-service organization or developing a project/program with an existing organization, and specify community partners.

III. ABSTRACT

Submit a brief paragraph summarizing your project.

If you are selected as a finalist, you will be contacted in advance to arrange for an interview on the third Friday in April. The awards reception is on the same date. You must be available for an interview to be eligible for the award. Applications are due no later than 4 p.m. on the third Friday in March in 200 Barnes Hall.
